

Friday 11th April 2.00 - 4.00 & 7.00 - 9.00
Dormer Centre at St Peter Apostle Catholic Church, Leamington
'Glasshouse' - Cardboard Citizens Forum Theatre
Tickets £5.00, Students (14+) £2.50 (booking – see below)

A powerful presentation from this London-based company:
we are drawn into the lives of individual family members who struggle to stay together, yet fail to survive apart.
The audience is then invited to reflect and identify where they might have done something different . . .
OK, let's see that scenario . . .

"Vital and powerful." "...a good balance of humour and emotion."

Tuesday 15th April 2.00 - 4.00 Tickets £2.50 (booking – see below)
Workshops in Poetry and Art (Margaret Bowdler & Sheila Millward)

'Improving the Health of the Poorest Fastest'

Prof Aidan Halligan was appointed by Public Health England to lead on this initiative. The former Deputy Chief Medical Officer for England is Chair of the Faculty for Homeless and Inclusion Health based at the College of Medicine, Guy's Hospital, and is Chairman of Pathway which is establishing a blueprint for developing health services for the homeless within the NHS.

He argues that the way we treat the most damaged and vulnerable people reflects our priorities as a society. Prevention is the only long-term response.

Saturday 5th April 9.30 – 3.00 £30 for up to 4 from one church

Salvation Army, Chapel Street, Leamington

Training Day: 'Helping without Hurting'
